ROMANTIC STORIES IN GUANAJUATO

Guanajuato is a magical destination that has great tourist offers within which are 2 World Heritage Cities, 6 Magical Towns, 5 Archaeological Zones, and incredible experiences of adventure in nature and gastronomy that enchant national visitors and visitors from all over the world. This offer and the great infrastructure that is available, such as hotels of all types, cultural and social venues, and quality services, allow couples to come and live great stories of romance.

The whole state offers a wide range of possibilities for your wedding, but it is important to highlight Guanajuato Capital and San Miguel de Allende as favorite destinations for couples to carry out their wedding in the World Heritage Cities. The historical and cultural richness of these Guanajuato cities makes those who visit them fall in love before deciding to get married.

SAN MIGUEL DE ALLENDE

San Miguel de Allende was named the most beautiful small city in the world and the second most beautiful to visit by publications and international recognition; It is a perfect place to get married, surrounded by small colorful streets, old houses, and of course its iconic parish.

Everything that surrounds San Miguel de Allende is spectacular, an inclusive place with couples of all kinds, visiting the city in the company of their friends and loved ones to enjoy this unique place. Whether in a Boutique Hotel or a first-class Hotel with international recognition, you can celebrate your event in any size you can imagine, here you can visit the many terraces with incredible views of the beautiful city, walk through the small cobblestone streets and buy a gift in one of the exclusive stores with unique products, stroll in a festive atmosphere with the typical mojigangas in a callejoneada and have breakfast in a restaurant with delicious dishes in incredible places.

Near the city is the Sanctuary of Atotonilco, a temple also called World Heritage Site, with amazing murals which give it the name of the Sistine Chapel of America. This place is also an incredible site for religious links and a unique site for photographs.

GUANAJUATO CAPITAL

The city of Guanajuato is also a place full of magic and harmony, it has places with mountains full of small colorful houses, old mining towns that transport you to the past, and tours through small alleys in the moonlight. All this makes any wedding a dream wedding.

The state capital is unique for its physiognomy, which allows for wedding venues with spectacular views. Here you can walk the alleys with the estudiantina, which is a traditional and fun experience, you should also visit its emblematic sites such as the Teatro Juarez, El Mercado Hidalgo, La Alhondiga de Granaditas, among many others, have breakfast in the historic center with your guests in unique places with delicious typical Mexican food, stroll around the city and know the old mining towns like Rayas or Valenciana or visit the emblematic viewpoint of the papilla which you can ascend in a funicular.

Both destinations have service providers and wedding planners with the highest quality standards, so you can make your wedding an incredible story. They also have wonderful halls and spaces for large capacity weddings and small weddings, all tailored to your needs.

It is important to point out that the Wedding and Romance Tourism Industry of San Miguel de Allende and Guanajuato, have developed strategies together with the Ministry of Tourism to work under the health standards to enable this segment so that people feel safe in a healthy and caring environment.

In Guanajuato you will fall in love, visit our destinations and live your romance to the fullest, bring your people to enjoy all that the state has to offer, and together write Great Stories.
